

SCROFULA A Disease We Inherit

The tainted blood of ancestors lays upon the shoulders of innocent offspring untold suffering by transmitting to them, through the blood, that blighting disease, Scrofula; for in nearly every instance the disease can be traced to some family blood trouble, or blood-kin marriage which is contrary to the laws of nature. Swelling, ulcerating glands of the neck, catarrh, weak eyes, sores, abscesses, skin eruptions, white swelling, hip disease and other deformities, with a wasting of the natural strength and vitality, are some of the ways this miserable disease manifests itself. The poison transmitted through the blood pollutes and weakens that health-sustaining fluid and in place of its nutritive qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter and tubercular deposits, often resulting in consumption. A disease which has been in the family blood for generations, perhaps, or at least since the birth of the sufferer, requires constitutional treatment. S. S. S. is the remedy best fitted for this. It cleanses the blood of all scrofulous and tubercular poisons, makes it rich and pure and under the tonic effects of this great blood medicine the general health improves, the symptoms all pass away, there is a sure return to health, the disease is cured permanently while posterity is protected. Book on the blood and any advice wished, furnished by our physicians, without charge.

SIR HENRY MORGAN, BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY.

Author of "The Southerners," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

Much impressed, the little party disembarked and walked rapidly toward the place of assemblage under the trees. Morgan and the maroon came last, each of them with a barrel sword and cocked pistol.

"Lads," said Hornigold as they approached the men, "here's your captain, Sir Henry Morgan."

"The governor!" cried one and another in surprise and alarm. The man had been a terror to evil-doers too poor to bribe.

"Nay, men, governor no more," Morgan answered promptly, "a free sailor who takes the sea against the Spanish dons. We'll go buccaneering as in the old days. These men here," pointing to the group of officers, "can tell you what it means. You have heard tales of the jolly, roving life of the brethren of the coast. We'll do a little picking in the Caribbean, then over the isthmus and then down into the south seas. There's wine and women and treasure to be had for the taking. The Spaniards are cowards. Let them hear that Harry Morgan is once more on the sea under the Jolly Roger, and they will tremble from Darien down to the strait of Magellan. It will be fair play and the old shares. Who's with me?"

"I!" "I!" "I!" broke from the bolder spirits of the crowd, and the rest, catching the contagion, finally joined in the acclaim.

"Easy," said the captain, "lest we be heard. Hornigold, is there liquor?"

"Plenty, sir."

"Let each man have a noble draft, then to the boats."

"But, captain," spoke up Sawkins, one of the boldest recruits, who was not in the secret, "be ye goin' buccaneerin' in boats? What's the ship?"

"I have a ship in the harbor," cried Morgan, "well found and provided."

"Aye, but what ship?"

"Confusion, sir!" shouted Morgan. "Begin ye by questioning me? Into the boat with your comrades! Vessels, De Lussan, Rock, see that the men get into the boats as soon as they have their drink. And hark ye, gentlemen, a word with ye!" calling them apart while the rest were being served. "Put the boldest men in the stern sheets with yourselves, the rest at the oars, and do you have your weapons ready. The Mary Rose lies just within the bar. You, Vessels and Rock, gain the fo'c'sl from larboard and starboard. You, Teach and Ravenau, board at the different gangways. Hornigold, I'll go in your boat, and we'll attend to the cabin. Let all be done without noise. No pistols. Use the blade. Take no prisoners and waste no time. If we gain the deck without difficulty, and I think we can, clap to the hatch covers, and we'll cut cable and get under way at once."

The men had been embarking in the boats rather reluctantly as he spoke, but presently all was ready. Finally Hornigold and then Morgan with the maroon stepped into the last boat, first making sure there were no stragglers left behind, and Morgan gave the command to shove off.

Sawkins had boldly presumed, in spite of the commander, to open his mouth again as the boats slowly left the beach, rowing through the passage and up the harbor against the ebb just beginning. He pulled the stroke-oar in Hornigold's boat.

"Before I go further," he cried, "I want to know what ship we're goin' aboard of."

"Aye!" came in a subdued roar from the men behind him, who only needed a leader to back out of the enterprise, which, as it threatened to involve fighting, began to seem not quite so much to their taste. "What ship?"

"The frigate," answered Hornigold shortly.

"What, the Mary Rose—the king's ship?" cried the men, ceasing to row.

In an instant Morgan's pistol was out. His motion was followed by Hornigold and the maroon.

"Row, you dogs!" he cried fiercely.

The stroke oarsman hesitated, although the others tried to pick up the stroke.

"I give you one minute—then I blow out your brains, pull out the plug in this boat, and we'll all go to hell together," said Morgan truculently to the reluctant men.

"Row for your lives' sake!" cried the man behind Sawkins, hitting him in the back with the haft of the oar.

"It's the king's ship!"

"What do we care for the king?" said Morgan. "He is the law, and none of us love the law. Two-thirds of her crew are drunk; t'other third are ashore or sick. They are unprepared, unless there'll be naught but the anchor."

"Row, you dogs!"

chor watch. One sharp blow and we have the frigate, then away. What fear ye, lads?"

By such words as these, but more by the threatening appearance of the weapons pointed from the stern sheets, Morgan inspired his men, and by similar language and threats the men in the other boats did the same. After rowing a short distance the flotilla separated. Those approaching from the farther side of the ship necessarily made a wide detour, for which the others waited, so they would all arrive simultaneously. In perfect silence, broken only by the "cheep" of the oars in the locks, the five boats swept down on the doomed frigate.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS

Office of State School Superintendent Has Allurements.

Indianapolis, May 19.—Prof. W. E. Stipp, superintendent of the Lawrence county school, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for state superintendent of public instruction, to succeed Fassett A. Cotton of this city, who is serving his second term and who will not be a candidate for renomination, although many are urging him to present his name. Professor Stipp is the first candidate to announce, but it is very likely there will be a large field of starters. It is probable that Charles Van Maitre of Muncie, who tried for the place three years ago, will be a candidate. There is a disposition among educators to change the political custom of not giving a superintendent more than two terms. They believe that the place should be as near under state civil service as possible, as it is not a political job. Until the ice is broken, however, it is not likely that anyone will be permitted to serve more than two terms.

The first money of the local campaign was posted on one of the betting boards here today. Small amounts were offered that Frank D. Stalnaker will defeat Charles A. Bookwalter for the Republican nomination for mayor. Even money was offered on the proposition. This indicates that Stalnaker's backers are even more confident than supposed, although they have been claiming about everything for several days. Bookwalter opened headquarters today and declared that he will certainly be nominated, but the outlook for him is not so rosy as he seems to think. He is in the race, to be sure, but he hasn't anything like a clinch that some of his friends were claiming a short time ago. There is a fight on now for control of the city committee, as it will be a big factor in determining the result. If Bookwalter is nominated it will be the greatest personal victory any politician has achieved here for many years, for practically all of the party leaders seem to be working day and night to bring about the nomination of Stalnaker.

The official plurality of Judge John H. Foster of Evansville over Major G. V. Menzies of Mt. Vernon in the First district special congressional race is 1,003. This is even better than Major Menzies' friends here anticipated he would do. It is the best showing, however, any Democratic congressional candidate has made in recent years in the district. Menzies' friends claim he would have won had the farmer vote been larger, but it is reasonable to presume that Foster would have done well enough among them to have "nosed out" ahead of the field. Menzies' showing, however, is not only very gratifying to his friends, but to Democratic party leaders generally. Judge Foster will soon resign his place on the superior court bench of Vanderburg county and Governor Hanly will name his successor.

The grand lodge of Odd Fellows adjourned its semi-annual meeting after making nominations of candidates to be voted on at the meeting in November. The grand lodge recommended that the minimum age for initiation be eighteen instead of twenty-one years.

Fight to Finish.

New York, May 19.—Justice Greenbaum, after hearing argument, reserved decision upon the application of the Equitable Life Assurance Society to have set aside an order made two weeks ago by Justice Bischoff directing the examination of President Alexander, Vice President Hyde and Second Vice President Tarbell in the action brought by Herber G. Tull of Philadelphia, a policyholder. At a meeting last night at his home James H. Hyde and his attorneys are reported to have decided to carry on to a finish the fight for the control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

A CITY'S DISGRACE

Philadelphia Sells Out the People on Ground of Expediency.

SHE NEEDS THE MONEY

Enormously Valuable Gas Franchise Is Bartered Against the United Protests of the People.

When Measure Passed Council the Members Were Greeted With Cry of "Thieves!"

Philadelphia, May 19.—Amid scenes of disorder unprecedented in the annals of Philadelphia's legislative body, the city council last night voted to lease the city's gas works to the United Gas Improvement company for a term of seventy-five years for the total sum of $25,000,000, the money to be paid in various amounts before the end of 1907. Council's chambers and committee rooms were crowded with excited citizens protesting against the lease to the United Gas Improvement company, from 1 p. m., when the proceedings opened in the finance committee rooms, until after 8 p. m., when the select council passed the bill and sent it to the mayor.

The climax was reached when the vote in common council was announced after three hours of debate. The moment President George McCurdy of the common council announced the vote a great uproar was started in the gallery, which was crowded to the doors. From all over the gallery came hisses and cries of "Thieves." The outburst was somewhat startling to the presiding officer, who made a vain effort to quell it. Finally he sent for a squad of police to clear the gallery, which started the disorder anew. The crowd continued to hiss and call the councilmen thieves and other names until the police arrived and started to clear the gallery. In clearing the gallery there were several clashes between the police and some of the spectators, but no one was hurt.

All through the session of the common council there was disorder. In the select council there were so many policemen on duty that no one dared to interrupt the proceedings. There was neither a cheer nor hiss when the bill passed that body. Fifteen minutes after the bill passed the common council it was taken by the select chamber, which had taken a recess to await the measure. It was read quickly and a motion to postpone action for the present was defeated. Samuel Crothers, who fought the bill in this chamber, shook his fist in the face of the leaders and said it was the "blackest crime ever perpetrated by councils on the city of Philadelphia." Those who favored the bill said the city was in urgent need of money and that public sentiment was not against the lease.

The agitation against the passage of the bill resulted in common council amending the measure so as to provide for a slight reduction in the price of gas. The amendment as adopted provides that the price of gas from the date of the lease until Jan. 1, 1911, shall be $1 per 1,000 cubic feet, the same as the present price; from 1911 to 1921, 95 cents; from 1921 to 1936, 90 cents; from 1936 to 1956, 85 cents, and thereafter until the expiration of the lease in 1980, 80 cents.

Mayor Weaver has announced himself as unalterably opposed to the lease and in favor of a postponement of the whole question until 1907, when the first ten years of the present thirty years lease to the United Gas Improvement company will expire. At that time the city has the right to take back the works on payment to the gas company of the amount of money expended in improvements. Mayor Weaver is expected to veto the bill, and in that event both chambers will probably pass it over his veto. The vote in common council was 74 to 9, and in select council 37 to 4. There is only one Democrat in each body and both voted against the lease. There is some talk among citizens who fought the lease to take the matter to the courts.

SIEGE EXPECTED

Looks Like There Will Soon Be Hot Times in Vladivostok.

Washington, May 19.—Richard S. Greener, American commercial agent at Vladivostok, has cabled the state department that all foreign commercial agents there have been asked to leave Vladivostok fortress and are given permission to reside in the cities of the maritime provinces. Mr. Greener himself was just leaving Vladivostok for Haborowsk. It will be recalled that a similar measure was adopted by the Russian authorities at Port Arthur at the beginning of the investment of that place by the Japanese land and sea forces, and hence it is assumed that Vladivostok is expected to become a center of the seat of war very soon.

Death of "Patsy" Ayres.

QUESTION OF VERACITY

Settlement of Strike Held Up Over a Triviality.

Chicago, May 19.—Peace in the teamsters' strike is still hanging in the balance, and although it is generally expected that a settlement will soon be reached, it seems today further away than it did twenty-four hours ago.

It was confidently asserted by the Team Owners' association that the teamsters had consented to arbitrate with them the question of whether or not union teamsters should make deliveries to the boycotted houses. President Shea of the teamsters' union later upset this arrangement entirely, declaring that he had never agreed to any such proposition. Members of the team owners' association, however, stated just as positively that the officials of the teamsters' union had agreed to such an arrangement.

This misunderstanding caused a halt in impending settlement and a meeting was arranged for between the team owners and the teamsters.

President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, who has been in Chicago for the past two days negotiating for peace in the present trouble, left for Dayton, O., last night. Before leaving the city Mr. Gompers said that so far he had accomplished very little but the prospects were that a basis would soon be reached where a settlement of the difficulty satisfactory to both of the opposing interests would be decided on.

Judge Holt will hear arguments on the application tomorrow.

CLINGING TO A BRIDGE

Fragment of Clothing Perhaps Belonging to a Missing Girl.

Lafayette, Ind., May 19.—A piece of a woman's skirt has been found clinging to a bridge spanning the Wabash river at Independence, and there is an effort toward identifying it as part of the clothing worn by sixteen-year-old Frances May Kruse at the time of her disappearance from home on the 17th of March last.

The parents of the missing girl, however, refuse to believe that their daughter committed suicide, and they are confident that she is working in some adjacent city and that eventually she will make her identity known.

The fragment of dress found at Independence tallies somewhat with the clothing of Miss Kruse, but it is despoiled by the flood and not easily identified.

State Had No Case.

Richmond, Ind., May 19.—The goods alleged to have been stolen from the Big Four Railway company by John Locke and which were confiscated at the time the parents of Locke and his wife were arrested on the charge of receiving stolen goods, have been restored to the Lockes. It is asserted that a suit to replevin the goods will be brought on behalf of the railway company. If this is done it will be necessary to prove that the property was stolen from the complaining company. The value of property alleged to have been stolen and restored to the Lockes aggregates $2,000 in value.

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such, for instance, as the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps for paper-bound volume, or thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressed to R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y. The change from maidenhood to womanhood is one that involves the whole body. The strain at this time upon the blood-forming structures may be too great. Disorders of the functions peculiarly feminine are nearly always dependent upon defective nutrition. In all such cases Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just the vegetable tonic for the female system.

"I cannot express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Julius Wehrly of Cambridge, Dorchester Co., Md. "I took Favorite Prescription" and feel that a perfect cure has been effected. I feel like thanking you for the kind and fatherly letters which you wrote."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the first exclusively woman's tonic on the market. It has sold more largely in the past third of a century than any other medicine for women. Do not let the drug store persuade you to try some compound that has not had the test of so many years' success.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

FLIMFLAMMED.

Passenger on B. & O. S-W. Train
Beat Out of $60.

This morning J. A. Milliken, of Washington, Pa., a passenger on No. 4 on the B. & O. S-W., was beat out of sixty dollars while the train was standing at the Seymour station. The method used to fleece him is an old one but it worked in this case.

Mr. Milliken was sitting in a seat midway in the car and when the train stopped at the Seymour station a man came up from the rear and asked him if he had a time card and at the same time inquiring if he knew how long the train stopped here. He had no hat on leaving the impression that he had just come from the next car back.

He glanced at the time card and said that he wanted to register a letter and he found that he would not have time to do it. He then produced a roll of bills and said that he wanted to mail this money, sixty dollars in amount, but that it was in small denominations and made a larger bill than he cared to put in a letter.

He asked Mr. Milliken if he could not accommodate him with some twenty dollar bills. He said he thought he could and opened his pocket book. He had three twenties which the stranger observed and said "you have three twenties there, just the amount I want. Let me have them for the $60 I have in smaller bills and it will be a great accommodation." Mr. Milliken told him all right and they exchanged. The stranger took the three bills and put them in an envelope folding them in a letter which he first took out of the envelope and sealed it right there while Milliken was counting the money he received.

This Mr. Milliken found to be much short of $60 and said to the stranger that he had not given him enough money. He replied that there must be some mistake as his wife had counted it out in the other car. It was counted again and found to be several dollars short. The stranger said for Milliken to just hold the envelope containing the $60 and he would take the smaller bills back to his wife and get the balance. But he never came back.

The train was then starting and Milliken became skeptical. He opened the envelope and found that it contained only paper. He reported it to the conductor and they went through the train but the man was not found with his $60. He came back from North Vernon on No. 7 and reported to Marshal Previtt and messages were sent to Indianapolis and Louisville to have police watch the Pennsylvania trains when they came in. One man on No. 19 was arrested before that train got into Indianapolis but he did not prove the right man and was set free.

The man who got the money got off No. 4 here but where he went no one knows. He probably took to the woods. Mr. Milliken left for Pennsylvania on No. 2 this afternoon. He said to the REPUBLICAN that he had learned a good lesson but it had been expensive. He has been in the employ of a manufacturing concern at Logansport.

Tired Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vitality is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, but after her recovery from the fever, she was much worse, and could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when the least excited. She was very restless at night, and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nerve was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week a treatment, she was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nerve has completed her entire cure."

The first box which I procured from C. W. ### The Good Old Way.

A severe cold or attack of la grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Hoesche's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation and effectively stops the coughs. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guarantee by W. F. Peter Drug Co. Price 50c.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." FRIDAY MAY 19, 1905.

ACCORDING to the papers Columbus is expecting company and is cleaning up and getting out her Sunday clothes. It would be good for Columbus if she had company often.

PARSON HICKS has discovered some big spots on the sun and says that we may expect tornadoes, earthquakes and all sorts of disturbances until these spots disappear. He is very clever to tell us to be prepared for any emergency.

THE Clark County Citizen, published by Carl Brayfield, comes out against Tom Taggart and Billy O'Brien and declares for Mike Sweeney, of Dubois county, for democratic state chairman. The Citizen thinks it is a good time for the democrats to get away from the Taggart machine and give the rank and file a chance. But Taggart is still boss.

THE post-office controversy at Scottsburg is getting warm again. Charges and countercharges have been made, the truth and veracity of men have been called in question even to the extent of making affidavits and the motives of men of influence have been called in question. Just who will be benefited by this unseemly war of words, written and spoken, is not apparent, but the injury done to every party to the controversy is certain.

Rev. Sweeney Improving.

Although still very weak Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, who had such a narrow escape from death, Tuesday afternoon, is improving rapidly, and was able to attend to some important matters pertaining to the fish and game. He was at his office about a half hour, this morning, and dictated a number of letters to his stenographer, Miss DeBos. He hopes to be as strong as ever in a few days.—Columbus Herald.

Rail Road Jack.

A familiar comedy and a series of novelties will be the bill offered at the Opera House May 23, when "Rail Road Jack" and his company of comedians will hold the boards. The play is of the farce comedy order and is brimful of new songs, dances and specialties. Special scenery and all mechanical effects are carried by the company.

Cruelty to Animals.

The new laws are very strict in regard to cruelty to animals and it behooves who have charge of animals to post themselves upon its provisions. There is scarcely a day but what some teamster subjects himself to a fine to which may be added jail imprisonment by an over-loaded team. It is also unlawful to carry any living animal, fowl or bird having its feet tied together, or to carry any living animal in a vehicle without putting the same in a suitable crate or cage so they may stand or lie down during transportation.

Country Pupils Best.

Business colleges throughout the country are inclined to criticize the work of the public schools in the matter of teaching spelling, punctuation and the common English branches generally, claiming it very deficient, as shown by graduates of the public schools who enter the commercial schools for a business course. There is a good deal of lighted tinsel connected with the education of the young nowadays, and the common, useful, practical knowledge essential to everyone in making the battle of life a success is sadly neglected. The business colleges find that the country student is on the average better schooled in the common English branches than the city student, and that is why so many young people of the country are to be found in good positions in business offices, through the training they get in a practical rural school with the addition of a thorough business course.—South Bend Tribune.

INDUSTRIAL LABOR UNION

Eugene Debs Has a New Amelioration Scheme.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 19.—Eugene Debs predicts the utter defeat of the Chicago strikers. He says that any settlement on a special harmony basis cannot be otherwise than a defeat for the men. The new Industrial Labor Union, to be organized at Chicago May 27, he says, will have representatives from labor unions in all parts of the country, but they will represent the socialist element of the unions. The new organization will be based on absolute antagonism to the capitalist class and not like trades unions, which seek mutual relations with the employing class. Mr. Debs does not say it, but the information is that he is to be at the head of the new organization.

Verdict for $450.

The case of John M. Woodson against M. S. Blush for alleged damage sustained by plaintiff was tried by a jury in circuit court Thursday. This suit was the result of an automobile accident in 1903. Mr. Blush was in his automobile between here and Hayden and met the plaintiff driving on the road. The horse took fright and ran away, damaging the buggy, crippling the horse and inflicting some slight injuries to Woodson. The plaintiff brought suit for $1000 damages, but the verdict of the jury is for $450. The defendant contends that he was not running the automobile at a high rate of speed, that he used precaution, and that the plaintiff was himself at fault; that he was going along with the lines hanging down loosely, reading a paper and paid no attention to the signals from the automobile. Mr. Blush maintains that he did everything to avoid an accident that any reasonable person could expect. A motion for a new trial will be made and if that is overruled an appeal to the supreme court will be taken.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Work of Term of 1904-05 Nears Completion.

Mr. S. L. Shirley, secretary of the Wabash College, was in the city today in the interest of that institution and addressed the Shields High School this morning. He talked most impressively along the line of higher education, speaking of the new fields open to those who are qualified, such as forestry and the openings for scientific work.

The first examinations of this semester were held this afternoon, the remainder to follow next week. The members of the Senior class are being excused from their lessons as readily as they finish each subject. All of their work will be completed next Tuesday afternoon.

As usual commencement week will be of much importance and interest to the general public. It has been noticed and often commented upon that the Seymour people are enthusiastic in everything in which the schools are concerned.

On Sunday morning May 21st, Rev. Dr. G. W. Shields will deliver an address at the Presbyterian Church with reference to schools and education. The public, teachers, alumni, pupils of the city schools and all who are interested are cordially asked to attend.

As has been before stated the baccalaureate sermon will be preached on the evening of May 21st, at the First Baptist Church by Rev. Austin B. Conrad.

The accustomed general interest in the commencement exercises is being exhibited throughout the city. The common opinion is that Prof. E. B. Bryan will render an address that has never been surpassed, if paralleled, on a similar occasion in the past.

That both of the honor speakers of the class are boys will be an out of the ordinary feature. In fact there has probably been but one other instance of like import in the history of the school, and that was eighteen years ago in 1887 when Walter Wood was valedictorian and Travis Trumbo was salutatorian. This year Harlan Montgomery and Julius Peter, the honor bearers, will discuss the pro and con of a question of the day. This promises to be unusually interesting for both are excellent speakers.

The class of 1905 are looking forward to the reception by the alumni association on the evening following commencement. These reunions are of perennial interest and no doubt this one will be as highly successful and as much events of pleasure as heretofore.

The commencement number of the High School Patriot will make its appearance on Thursday evening at the Opera House. The Patriot staff has done excellent work this year and the last issue is the best of the term.

Why could we not have a field day to round up this school year? Such a time with its foot-races, hurdling, pole-vaulting along with base and foot ball should be encouraged. Athletics is a most desirable addition to any school and is an aid to successful mental work, which is the chief purpose of our schools.

CHINKS RESISTING

Argument Made That There
Is No Longer a Chinese Exclusion Law.

PU LUN STARTED IT

Since Chinese Refuse to Visit to This Country His Sailing Subjects
Have Been Organizing.

An Indianapolis Chinaman is Said to be the Head of the Active Organization.

Cleveland, O., May 19.—That there is a strong combination of practically all the Chinamen in the United States formed to fight for what they consider their legal rights of entering and acquiring a residence in the United States is stated by Ben Lee, a well-known local Chinaman, who is at the head of the local branch of the organization.

Ben Lee stated that the Chinese have received advice from Sir Cheng-tung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister to Washington, that he has received orders from the Chinese government to see that the Chinese in PRINCE PU LUN.

this country protect their rights by organizing. The first test of their strength was made when six Chinamen were tried before United States Commissioner Moore at Indianapolis recently, and in which the results were found satisfactory. The same strength will be used in the approaching trial of other Chinamen here.

The organization, according to Ben Lee, dates since the visit of Prince Pu Lun to this country a year ago. Moy Kee of Indianapolis, one of the most prominent Chinamen in the United States, is said to be the active head of the association in this part of the country, receiving instructions from Sir Chengtung Liang Cheng. Ben Lee denied that there were any Chinese Masonic societies engaged in this, but said that all members of the race alike were united without regard to their affiliation with any of the Six Companies.

An appeal will be taken in federal court in this city next week in the case of a Chinaman who has been ordered deported from the United States in conformity with the Chinese exclusion law. J. P. Dawley, who has been engaged as counsel for one Chinaman, will argue that inasmuch as the treaty between the United States and China upon which the Chinese exclusion law is based has expired, there is no longer any exclusion law in existence. Half a dozen other Chinamen are involved in the decision. It is said that Chinamen from all over the state are interested in the outcome of this appeal. Should Judge Taylor uphold the order of deportation, appeal will be taken to the supreme court of the United States.

Two Perish in Flames.

Waynesville, O., May 19.—The home of A. L. Comstock, three miles east of this city, was destroyed by fire and Mrs. Comstock and her two-year-old child perished in the flames. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove, resulting in injuries to Mrs. Comstock which made it impossible for her to escape from the burning building. The bodies of both mother and child were burned beyond recognition.

Love Causes Tragedy.

Ravenna, O., May 19.—Rolla Ciki is dead here of a bullet wound inflicted by Stephen Gorsick. Gorsick sent money to his sweetheart in Austria to come here to marry him, but her heart was won by a rival. Gorsick went to Ciki's house, where the woman was staying, to demand that she marry him. Ciki ordered Gorsick away, when the latter shot and fatally wounded him. Gorsick escaped.

Well-Known Miner Killed.

Brazil, Ind., May 19.—Frank Brink, thirty years old, a well-known miner in this district, was instantly killed in the mine of the Brazil Clay company, near this city, by a log falling on him.
He was a man of family.

Cut Throat With Razor.

Springfield, O., May 19.—August F.
Koeb, machinist, committed suicide by cutting his throat twice with a razor, almost severing his head.
